TELEGRAPHIC.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 9.

Paul Verlaine, the French poet, is dead. Senator Kaubach dropped dead at Ottawa, yesterday.

These French accidentally shot himself dead at Qu'Appelle yesterday.

A proposal for the annexation of Hawaii has been laid before the United States congress.

Great Britain is making active preparations for hostilities, presumably with Germany.

The siege of Havana, in progress. Heavy insurgent losses are reported, but it is anticipated they will eventually win.

Internal strife continues in Venezuela. The prisons are full of political offenders and a thousand enlistments for military service have been made.

A political crisis still exists at Ottawa. Premier Bowell promises a definite statement to-day. It is expected he will retire and be succeeded by Sir Charles Tupper, Sr.; although some think Laurier will be summoned.

Nominations for the Manitoba legislature were made yesterday. Eight supporters of the government were elected by acclamation. Luxton retired in South Winnipeg and Cameron was elected. The acclamations were: Winnipeg, Centre, McMillan; Winnipeg, South, Cameron; Lakeview, Rutherford; Souris, Campbell; Springfield, Smith; Birtle, C. L. Mickle; Westbourne, Morton; Minnedosa, Myers.

Premier Bowell resigned yesterday afternoon, but Lord Aberdeen has not yet acted upon his resignation. He represented to Bowell that he was morally bound to introduce remedial legislation as promised in the speech from the throne before retiring from office. Bowell is now reconsidering his decision in the hope that matters may be adjusted before he leaves office. The situation is changing hourly and an estimate formed is of no value until announced officially. Sir Donald Smith consulted with Bowell, and then took a special train for Montreal to consult with Chapeau. A meeting of sixty conservative members was held this afternoon, all of whom are solid for Tupper, senior, for premier. The impression is prevalent that Bowell will temporarily reconstruct the cabinet in order to bring down a remedial bill.

THE Edmonton end of our esteemed contemporary, the Calgary Herald, has struck on a scheme whereby it hopes to excuse the lack of news which its columns exhibit, and at the same time secure a little free advertising from the BULLETIN. It is a scheme which no doubt would work well, say in Stumpville, up the Ottawa, or in Calgary, but it is too cheap for Edmonton.

C. GALLAGHER made a large shipment of bacon to Saddle Lake Indian agency on Wednesday, part of a contract of 23,000 pounds. He has also the contract of supplying 6,000 pounds of bacon and 500 pounds of lard to the Roman Catholic diocese of Athabasca-Mackenzie, to be at the Landing by the end of April. This is the first year that these contracts have not been filled with rattle-snake bacon from Chicago.

THE Ball jubilee singers, of Toronto, gave a musical and line light entertainment in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth league of the Methodist church. There was a good attendance and the entertainment was much appreciated. It consisted of plantation melodies and views illustrating slavery days in the south, and was highly appreciated. Mr. Ball and nephew gave an entertainment at the Sturgeon last night and will give another in South Edmonton to-night.

A HORSE hitched to an empty cart ran away on Wednesday afternoon. It came down Queen's avenue at a rattling pace, crossed Main street between Cameron's and Sutter & Dunlop's stores, and went down Ross' grade, meeting a team on the way. It met and safely passed another team between Ross' and the H. B. fort, then went down the grade to the river at the Fort meeting more teams by the way, crossed the river and went up the hill on the south side. It was finally captured near the South Edmonton school house, having broken nothing and injured no one of the many whom it met, going at racing speed.

NEW STYLE

Doing Business.

On and after January 1st, 1896, our books will be closed, and hereafter we will do business for cash only. This will enable us to give you more for your money, because we will avoid the expense of keeping books, the time it takes to collect accounts, and the occasional loss incidental to the credit system. We often hear the remark "That man is as good as gold," but this is untrue. Gold will pay our drafts, and a book debt will not; and nobody ever loved us better because they owed us. On the contrary if they are unable or unwilling to pay they avoid us and pay their cash to our competitors.

At the inauguration of this new scheme we will offer our entire stock of Winter Goods, comprising the latest styles in WETASKIWIN.

A number of friends arranged a surprise for our Methodist minister, Rev. J. W. Bowering. On New Year's day, at eight o'clock they called upon him and made a presentation as an expression of the high esteem in which he is held by this community. The evening was agreeably spent in acting chorales and with music, recitations, games, &c., and was enjoyed by all who had the good fortune to be present.

Our annual meeting of school trustees was called for Saturday, 4th inst., but as only one trustee could be found, the meeting was adjourned until the 11th.

Mrs. J. H. Walker and Miss Hilda Walker came up from Calgary on last train.

Population still continues to increase. On the 30th, the wife of Mr. Eph Gilling became the happy mother of a fine girl.

Jan. 2nd, '96.

NAMAO.

A gloom was cast over the brightness of the New Year's morning when it was announced that Mrs. J. A. Carson had passed away. The deceased lady had only been ill a short time and it was not generally known that her condition was considered dangerous. The news of her death came like a shock to her many friends. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon and notwithstanding the severe cold was largely attended, nearly thirty conveyances following the remains to the grave. Rev. G. W. Dean was present and held a short and impressive service at the house, and the silent tear which could be seen on the cheek of nearly all present, showed how genuine was the sympathy which was felt towards the bereaved husband and other relatives of the deceased. The remains were laid to rest by the side of those of her late mother, Mrs. Maxwell. A memorial sermon will be preached on the 26th inst., by Rev. G. W. Dean.

The annual school meeting was held to-day. The attendance was small. John Harold was re-elected trustee for another term. T. T. Brown was appointed auditor. School is closed for the winter.

Jan. 4th, 1895.

President Cleveland has announced the composition of the Venezuelan commission, which will consist of five members, as follows: David J. Brewer of Kansas, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States; Richard H. Alvey of Maryland, chief justice of the court of appeals of the district of Columbia; Andrew D. White, New York; Frederic B. Couderc, New York; Daniel C. Gilman of Maryland.

Free Press: The reference to the school question in the governor-general's speech would convey the impression that the Dominion government's attitude was one of enquiry as to what Manitoba was prepared to do and whether any arrangement was possible with the Manitoba government, which would render action unnecessary. Presumably the authors of the remedial order and subsequent school communications, know best what it was their intention to express; but certainly Manitoba interpreted all negotiations as direct order. Thus there is a discrepancy on which the proceedings of the legislature should throw more light.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

At the pressing request of a number of friends, I have decided to offer my services to you as a member of the Town Council for the ensuing year. Long before becoming a resident of Edmonton, while manager of the Hudson's Bay Company's northern transport, I was instrumental in diverting that transport from Prince Albert to Edmonton. The result was that Edmonton advanced into an importance which was one of the principal reasons for the construction of the Calgary & Edmonton railway. There is, however, a missing link in the chain which must be supplied in order that Edmonton may maintain the business supremacy to which its position otherwise entitles it; and if you do me the honor of returning me to serve you in the council, I shall continue, as in the past, to advocate the immediate construction of this vitally necessary link of railway connection, and every other scheme for the development of this town, which meets with the approval of the ratepayers, together with an economical and efficient administration of municipal affairs in general.

I have the honor to be,
Ladies and Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,

GENERAL NEWS.

In its issue of January 1st, the London Times says: "The new year opens with mingled omens. At home the augurs are in every way favorable. The outlook of external politics is most serious, even alarming. The revival of war spirit in the United States, or what simulates it, and the prolonging of the uncertain position in the east are almost equally disquieting. The long impending crisis in South Africa has become acute. We are bound, therefore, to be prepared for contingencies, which may call for a vigorous exertion of power, that last resort that must be relied upon to hold the British Empire together. Happily it is certain that the nation is fully capable of meeting the probable demands on its resources."

LARUE & PICARD.

About a year ago now we inserted a Xmas adv't in the BULLETIN for a short time to advocate the desirability of giving a useful and durable present at Xmas. We were well pleased with the results, besides having added to the comfort and brightening a good many homes in and around Edmonton during the past year. So we feel perfectly justified in again coming to you and saying that in our opinion there is nothing more acceptable in the home than a nice piece or set of furniture. In fact we feel we cannot color this picture too highly. It is appropriate for both rich and poor and within the reach of all. What would gladden the heart of a wife or mother more than a Rocker or a half dozen good common chairs in a home where they are needed; and which you can buy for $1.75 and $3.90 respectively; or if it is more particularly for your wife's or sister's own use, the first payment on a Sewing Machine, or say a nice Lady's Secretary. We have them, all kinds and grades, from $5.00 in antique to the most elaborate quarter cut Oak at $33.00. If for husband, brother or father, say a good comfortable Chair or Lounge. In fact we have so much that goes to make home comfortable and attractive, and at prices so close, that if you will call at our warehouses we will assist you in choosing a present that is quite within your means and that will be a joy to the recipient for years to come.
